

Maine GHG Registry Efforts

Enabling Legislation

In Maine, state Representative Bob Daigle submitted LD 87 directing the Maine Department of Environmental Protection to adopt rules to create a voluntary registry of greenhouse gas emissions. The House and Senate passed the resolve. The resolve directs the Maine DEP to develop a voluntary greenhouse gas registry program. Toward that end, Maine is working closely with NESCAUM's Greenhouse Gas Registry workgroup in developing such a registry

Rules and Regulations

Under development

Contacts

Kevin Macdonald

Maine DEP

Kevin.Macdonald@state.me.us

Links

LD 87